PRESS RELEASE

The United Nations Resident Coordinator, Mr. Edward J. Watts, has today released an updated progress report on the implementation of the United Nations Development Agenda in Lao PDR.

The report highlights the significant progress made in implementing the UN Development Agenda across various sectors, including education, health, and social services. It also underscores the need for continued efforts to ensure that the Agenda's objectives are met.

Mr. Watts emphasized the importance of partnerships and collaboration with all stakeholders to achieve the Sustainable Development Goals. He called on all actors to work together to ensure that the Agenda's goals are realized in Lao PDR.

The report also includes a section on the role of the Resident Coordinator in facilitating the implementation of the Agenda. It highlights the challenges faced and the strategies adopted to overcome them.
